

Roald Amundsen

Explorer

mobile +47 999 99 999
email explore@amundsen.no

born 16/07/1872

Skills

- Focus • Courage
- Curiosity • Resilience
- Risk taking • Conviction
- Optimism • Patience

Languages

- Norwegian • English
- Native antarctic

Hobbies

Sitting around a campfire, long walks along an icy coast, local foodie.

Social Media

Instagram @roald.amundsen
YouTube @loves2explore4life

Passionate about turning the uncharted into the charted. Catch me before my next venture or never!

Education

Bachelor in Steermanship - Christiania Sjømandsskole - 1895

Exam in becoming a steerman. First class.

Employment History

Seaman - 1897-1899

Unsalariated seaman on the Belgica expedition

Expedition leader - 1903-1906

Leader of expedition for the Northwest passage expedition. Employed various winter survival tactics.

Expedition leader - 1910-1912

In charge of the antarctica expedition. Base building in the south pole. Made use of dogs.

Expedition leader - 1918-1920

Chief over the expedition to the Northeast passage. Contracted own polarship, called her "Maud".

Pilot - 1925

Attempted to fly to the north pole with the use of N24 and N25 flyboats.

Airship explorer - 1926

Reached the North Pole with the airship "Norge". Got some nice photos for my insta.

References

Anton Lund, Explorer, Discover Inc.

- lund@discover.com +47 999 999 999

Helmer Helmersson, Explorer, Explore Ltd.

- helmerson@sons.now +47 888 888 888

Peder Ristvedt, Scientific Consultant, Data Exploration Company

- rist@dec.com +47 888 888 888

Gustav Juel Wiik, Engineer, Wiik Enterprises

- wiik@wiik.eco +47 777 777 777

Projects

World Exploration

- discovering new lands and growing that great cathedral of human knowledge
- developing better, safer and more efficient ways of doing exploration whether that is on land, in the sea or in the air
- educating people on the wonders of being a discoverer and cultivating an explorer mindset